

“The Approaching Differences Diagram is a tool referenced in the training video Making Friends. This is a model that, as it is practiced with awareness, will help both Christians and Muslims grow in becoming more culturally aware. It will help you as you navigate your internal and external responses to differences in such a way that moves your friendships in a positive direction both during and after a Peace Feast.”

Approaching Differences Diagram

